

United States

Logicalis US has the experience and resources to effectively serve a wide array of customers across a variety of geographic areas regionally, nationally and internationally.

What Sets Us Apart?

In the United States, Logicalis has invested two decades cultivating extensive experience in managed services, skills which complement our service desk, cloud and security practice offerings. In our security and networking practices, our in-depth assessments help our experts design, implement and support the right solutions for our customers' unique IT environments.

Our strong relationships with leading best-in-class vendor partners give us preferred pricing which we pass on to our customers. And, through our established consulting practice, we help our clients become digitally driven organizations that are more adaptable and agile, giving them a competitive edge in today's fast-paced business environment.

With years of experience working with international clients, we understand the challenges and complexities involved in multi-national solutions. At Logicalis US, we have a host of multi-lingual staff members committed to the successful execution of our customers' international IT projects.

Optimal Services Program

While maintaining different operations in many countries may qualify an organization as a "global" entity, Logicalis believes something more is needed. That's why Logicalis US participates in the Logicalis Optimal Services program, an international common services platform which offers our multi-national enterprise clients true consistency of services regardless of geography.

Optimal Services is an incredible framework that has been painstakingly designed to deliver repeatable, consistent services across all participating geographies while still giving us the ability to remain flexible and agile in meeting our customers' unique regional needs.

What Do Logicalis US Customers Say About Us?

"Working with Logicalis and Cisco is like working with one company. They work so well together it's hard to distinguish between the two during our interactions. Logicalis knows how to articulate the value of the Cisco vision and has the ability to procure the necessary Cisco resources to deliver on that vision."

– George Haller, Vice President of IT Infrastructure and Operations Services, Bob Evans Farms
